Business-

1. Leadership Type Test
  - Youth Commissioners and Youth Corps members took a leadership/personality type test that consisted of 25 statements that had to be rated on a scale of 1-10. One (1) being “not at all like me” and ten (10) being “that’s just like me”.
  - For most, the results were one (1) color: red, yellow, green, or blue. For some, they had two (2) colors tied. They had to choose the color they resonated most with.

2. Gingerbread Competition Kahoot!
  - Youth participated in a Kahoot! poll that gave feedback, along with reflection, on the gingerbread competition.

3. Gingerbread Team Breakout Rooms
  - Participants were split into breakout rooms that consisted of their gingerbread competition team
  - They answered the following questions:
    1. What was your role in the group?
    2. How did you communicate with each other? How often?
    3. Why didn’t you introduce yourselves to each other (at the beginning of the competition)?
    4. How difficult was it to communicate?

4. Leader Type Breakout Rooms
  - Youth were then put in breakout rooms of their leadership-type and answered a few questions regarding their leadership type.
