

MOBIL OR OUTDOOR VENDOR – PARKS APPLICATION

This approved application AND a valid business license are needed for mobile or outdoor vendors to operate in or within 200 ft. of a City of Brighton Park. If you already have a valid City of Brighton Business License simply submit this application for review to operate in or within 200 ft. of a City of Brighton Park. If you do not have a current license or are going through license renewal you can submit this application together with your License Application packet for a mobile or outdoor vendor license.

Please note that Operation at sports complexes requires permission for each event this includes

- Adult Sports Complex
- Pawlowski Fields (Youth Sports Complex)
- Water Tower Park, requires permission for each event in addition to having a valid business license.

Submit this application at least two business days (48 hours) before you plan to commence operation at or within 200 ft. of a City Park.

The Parks and Recreation Department has authorized vendors with a valid City of Brighton license who are working with city staff to participate at a special event to operate at or within 200 ft. of a Park where the event is scheduled to be held. These vendors do not need to submit a Parks Application for that particular special event.

There is no fee to submit this application, however, there is a $60 for a mobile or outdoor vendor business license which the vendor must possess in addition to this approved application in order to operate at or within 200 ft. of a City Park.

City of Brighton Park Rules include:

- No glass bottles
- 5 am to 10 pm Park Hours / Dawn to Dusk for Open Space
- No driving in or on park areas / turf
- Complete list of Park rules can be found in Municipal Code 9-8-10
