Three vehicles trespassed, two stolen in one night

Overnight on Aug. 16 / Aug. 17 three vehicles were trespassed and two were stolen. The incidents occurred in the 100 block of South 18h Avenue and the 100 block of South Miller Avenue. For information about motor vehicle theft and prevention, visit our website.

Case Report 23-4704

On Aug. 19 officers were on routine patrol when they noticed a vehicle driving north on North Main Street with no license plate. Upon contacting the driver and receiving consent to search the vehicle, they located 34 fentanyl pills. The 32-year-old male was also found to have a revoked drivers license as a habitual traffic offender. He was arrested and booked into Adams County jail.

Mountain Lion Sightings

Brighton Police Department has received additional reports of mountain lion sightings. Officers have not been able to confirm these sightings. If you see an animal that you think may be a mountain lion, please call the non-emergency line at 303-288-1535 or call 911. Mountain lions are often most active from dusk to dawn. To learn more about mountain lions and what to do if you encounter one, visit the Colorado Parks and Wildlife website.
